ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

WORK FOR THOUSANDS IN TAKING OF CENSUS

or Durand Sets February 5th As Date for Examinations---The Florida Districts.

INGTON, D. C., Dec. 28.—Any good judgment, who has received an ordinary common school education can readily and easily pass to be given applicants for enumerators' places on Saturday, the date finally set by census Director Durand, according to an announcement from the Bureau. This will be the assurance to the several hundred who are believed to be completing application for the census.

emphatically stated at the test will be an eminently reasonable and practical one, that applied to applicants for the census. It will consist of a sample schedule taken from a description, in form, of typical families; and, in the rural districts, the case of enumerators whose names will be called upon to fill out the sample schedule of the census.

than January 25th; as any received after that date cannot be considered. Those who have already sent in their names to the supervisor of their district will in a few days receive these formal application blanks, or forms, and full instructions.

While the term of employment is short, lasting from fifteen to forty days, the compensation will be good, considering the easy nature of the work, and the fact that no education, or special training, is necessary. It is expected that the pay of enumerators will range from three to six dollars per day according to the difficulty of enumeration, and the energy of the individual.

The First District consists of the counties of Citrus, DeSoto, Hernando, Hillsboro, LaFayette, Lake, Lee, Levy, Manatee, Marion, Monroe, Pasco, Polk, Sumter and Taylor, and parties living therein should address applications and inquiries to Mr. Henry W. Bishop, Supervisor of Census, Eustis, Florida.

The Second District consists of the following eighteen counties: Alachua, Baker, Bradford, Brevard, Clay, Columbia, Dade, Duval, Hamilton, Nassau, Orange, Osceola, Palm Beach, Putnam, St. Johns, St. Lucie, Suwannee and Volusia, and parties living therein should address Mr. LeSueur Gaudin, Supervisor of Census, Jacksonville, Fla., or call at the Census office, Government building, Jacksonville.

The Third District contains the counties of Calhoun, Escambia, Franklin, Gadsden, Holmes, Jackson, Jefferson, Leon, Liberty, Madison, Santa Rosa, Wakulla, Walton and Washington. Mr. White of Chipley, Fla., is the supervisor of this district.

This test to be given applicants for census enumerators' places on Saturday, February 5th, will be held at many places throughout the State, probably by the postmasters, and it is not expected that any applicant will have to travel more than fifteen or twenty miles to reach the place where the examination is held.

DELAND MAYOR WEL- COMES THE EDUCATORS

HAD PRINTED A BRIEF BUT VERY CORDIAL ADDRESS.

First Session of Annual Meeting Was Held Tuesday Evening at Stetson University.

DELAND, Dec. 28.—Hon. S. A. Wood, mayor of this city, has had printed a brief but very cordial address of welcome to Florida's educators who will visit the city this week. It reads as follows:

"To Members of the Florida State Educational Association and Visiting Friends: We are honored in your selection of Deland as your meeting place. Ever since the day when the venerable founder of this city sat on a pine log out in the primeval forest and took counsel with a few friends concerning the building of a school for the education of the children of the neighborhood, the community has been a center of educational influence. Our people wish to do honor to the profession of teaching and it will be our pleasure to minister to your comfort while you tarry with us and to make your stay, if possible, a very pleasant and profitable one.

"Our citizens have been diligent in making preparations for your entertainment, and there will be no abatement of interest on the part of any of our people until every pledge given in the name of the city has been redeemed with honor.

"I want to invite you most cordially to attend the reception which our people will give in your honor on Thursday evening in the parlors of Chandon Hall.

"I am glad to commend you to the hospitalities of our homes.

"S. A. WOOD, Mayor."

The annual meeting of the Florida State Educational Association opened this evening in the auditorium of Stetson University, at which time several instrumental selections were rendered while the audience gathered, after which the following program was carried out:

Invocation—Rev. Clarence H. Fernan.

Address of welcome—Superintendent A. O. Botts, Mayor S. A. Wood, President Lincoln Hulley.

Vocal solo—Miss Lena Conkling.

Response to address of welcome—President A. A. Murphree.

Annual address—Hon. W. M. Holloway, State Superintendent.

WRECK OF BIG SCHOONER HAS BEEN DISCOVERED

Crew of Twelve Men Lost Their Lives---Ohio River Is Frozen Over.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 29.—The discovery yesterday of the wreck of the five-masted schooner Davis Palmer which sank with twelve men Sunday morning at the entrance of Broad sound, was followed by the report of another wreck in the outer harbor. This second victim of the great storm which swept New England Saturday night and Sunday was reported by Capt. Kemp of the tug Ariel, who asserts that he saw three masts of a schooner projecting above the water near the shoals known as the "graves."

Although Capt. Kemp locates the vessel three miles west of the wreck of the Palmer, some marine authorities think that he may have been mistaken in his bearings and that he saw the Palmer's masts. Seafaring men who believe that the tug boat captain is not in error about his bearings are discussing the possibility of a collision between the Palmer and the unknown schooner.

Probably the last person to see the Palmer before she sank was Capt. Hookam of the barge Hopateong, which docked at Lynn yesterday from Hobeoken. He reported the Palmer off Cape Cod last Christmas afternoon. At that time the Palmer's sailors were on deck singing and celebrating the holiday in true sea fashion, all unknowing of the fate that awaited them within a few hours at the entrance of their home port.

Monday's toll of wrecks was increased yesterday. The schooner Ada K. Damon, the sole support of her aged master, Capt. A. K. Brewster of York, Me., went ashore near Epswich. She will probably be a total loss. Her crew managed to reach shore safely.

In Chelsea, where a tidal wave broke a dyke and flooded the homes of 2,000 people, a high tide yesterday opened two new breaks. Many of the cellars on higher ground which had been pumped out by fire engines were again flooded. It will be weeks before the people in the eighty acres which are under water every high tide will be able to return to their homes.

The wreck of the Davis Palmer lies just outside of Devil's Back buoy north of Commissioners' ledge at the entrance to Broad Sound, Boston harbor. The big vessel lies submerged, but the mast heads project from the water. It is thought that the Palmer touched a shoal spot early Sunday morning, the seas during the terrific storm sweeping the decks clear and carrying the crew of twelve men to their death.

The Palmer was bound from Newport News for this city with a cargo of coal. The vessel lies in the channel and is a dangerous menace to other vessels. The loss of the Palmer became known Monday when the wreckage bearing her name was found on Hull Beach.

OHIO RIVER BECOMES LONG RIBBON OF ICE.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 29.—With tons upon tons of ice piled high against the piers of bridges spanning the Ohio river here and at points below Pittsburgh, river traffic has been entirely abandoned and river men are preparing to cope with one of the worst ice packs ever experienced in the local harbor.

An estimated 10,000,000 bushels of coal has been diverted from its usual river transportation to Southern points and cars are being asked for from all railroads by coal operators, who realize that it may be weeks before the packet owners can again take up the work of transporting the coal fleets down the Ohio. At Pittsburgh river navigation ceased Christmas Day.

At Wheeling, W. Va., river men report danger to craft in that harbor. Precautions have been taken to avoid loss of property along the water front where many packets and empty coal floats lie tied up.

From Wheeling to New Martinsville, W. Va., 35 miles, a solid sheet of ice marks the course of the Ohio river. Weather conditions at all points do not indicate any marked change, and it is the prediction of river men that the present severe conditions will prevail for at least a week, if not for weeks.

Man Kills Wife, Shoots Mother-in-Law and Self

GA., Dec. 28.—Despondent in a gloomy mood following excessive drinking, Edward B. Alford shot and instantly killed his wife, Martha Ekum, then turned the pistol on himself, firing one shot into his right temple and another into his right lung, inflicting injuries which will result in his death. He was the place by five successive shots. Officer R. L. Thomas also fallen victim before Alford except for the fact that he had been previously injured.

Alford was an employe of the Massee Felton Company and was a steady workman. He was under the influence of liquor for several days recently, but had become sober.

Two months ago he attempted suicide by taking morphine. Several years ago he also attempted to take his own life in a like manner.

After abusing his wife and her mother last night, he drew his pistol and told them he was going to kill them and himself. They fled from the house. He followed and fired upon Mrs. Ekum, shooting her as she ran. The wife ran toward her husband after he had shot her mother. He fired upon her, then turned his gun upon himself. The husband fell across the body of his wife and in this position the officer found the prostrate forms.

A fourteen-year-old daughter, the only child, was absent from home when the tragedy occurred.

MISSISSIPPI GOVERNOR AP- POINTS M'LAURIN'S SUCCESSOR.

JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 28.—The appointment of Col. James Gordon of Okolona, as United States Senator from Mississippi, to succeed the late Senator A. J. McLaurin, was announced by Governor Noel yesterday.

The appointment is only until the Legislature can elect a Senator for the unexpired term and is made with the understanding that Senator Gordon will not be a candidate for this term.

The appointment was a surprise in political circles, as it was generally believed that the Governor would leave the office vacant until the Legislature takes up the question on January 11. While Senator Gordon may not serve more than two or three weeks, there is a strong probability of a legislative deadlock, owing to the large number of probable candidates. It is therefore not improbable that Mr. Gordon may serve a year or more.

He is 74 years old, a native of Mississippi, and served with distinction in the Confederate army. He has not been prominent in public life during the last twenty years.

Governor Noel announced that one of his principal motives in appointing Col. Gordon was a compliment to the soldier of the Confederacy.

Brokaw Defines What Constitutes Drinking Man

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—W. Gould Brokaw had a bad day of it on the stand at Minersville, Pa., yesterday. He had previously testified of his attitude of fairness toward his wife, who is suing for separation with alimony of $50,000 a year; but under skillful cross-examination by her lawyer, he was forced to admit that he had accused her in a letter to his mother-in-law of loving another man, or drinking too much port wine, and smoking cigarettes. He also admitted that his secretary, Byford, had assisted him in breaking down the door of his wife's bedroom on one occasion.

Brokaw was in an irritable mood and forgetful of details. The pretty plaintiff, however, was in as light humor as her husband's was dark.

It became known yesterday that Mrs. Frank J. Gould, Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Horace White, of Syracuse, and other friends of Mrs. Brokaw, had offered to appear as witnesses in her behalf, but counsel for Mrs. Brokaw said that he considered his client's case sufficiently strong, and declined the offer. Those friends were nearly all members of a house party to which Brokaw had strongly objected, and it is said they are willing to give their version of the affair.

Brokaw gave this definition of a drinking man. He has testified before that he does not drink.

"Can you recall any time when you were, in what has been called, the 'trivially exhilarated state'?" asked Mrs. Brokaw's lawyer.

"I cannot," replied the witness.

"When do you think a man qualifies as a drinking man?" was asked.

"Well," said Brokaw, "I would not call anyone a 'drinking man' who takes less than seven or eight drinks a day."
